The end of an era for Caterham

The Caterham branch of the Grenadier Guards will be closing at the end of the year due to a fall in numbers. On Sunday 7th August the few remaining members unveiled a bench outside the cricket pavilion in the old Caterham Barracks to commemorate the Guards who used to be stationed there. The branch have also planted a tree at the National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire to honour the Guards of Caterham. The closure of the branch marks the end of an era for Caterham that started back in the 1870s when the Guards first started to arrive at the Depot. Over the years, many Guardsmen settled in the town after completing their service. Caterham Barracks closed in 1993 and the old accommodation blocks and other military buildings were renovated by Linden Homes for housing and commercial use. With old soldiers dying and no new recruits, the branch of the Grenadier Guards dwindled in numbers but it continued its success by joining forces with Guardsmen from the Coldstream, Irish and Welsh Guards, and also two Household Calvary members. The bench unveiling was a solemn occasion attended by the members of the branch, their friends and family. Bugler Derryck Pryce played 'The Last Post' as the bench was unveiled followed by 'Reveille'. Chairman of the branch, ex Grenadier Guard Len 'Tiger' Payne said: "Six months ago only 12 members attended our AGM so we finally decided to disband the branch. We decided to buy this bench to remind people that we did exist. It is a very sad day."

Community gears up to have more say with a 'Neighbourhood Development Plan'

The Localism Bill going through Parliament is all about giving more control over important issues to local communities, so four local parishes are working together to produce a bid for money to develop a 'Neighbourhood Development Plan'.

Caterham-on-the-Hill, Caterham Valley, Whyteleaf and Chaldon Parish Councils have combined with local businesses and community groups to work with Tandridge District Council and Surrey County Council in a 'Front Runner Bid'. The scheme provides grant funds from the government to assist with the development of Neighbourhood Plans, to encourage groups to act as 'early adopters' and share experiences with others.

Chris Windridge, Chairman of 'A Better Caterham' community group, is the acting co-ordinator for the Front Runner Bid for government funding. He said: "The Government's agenda is 'sustainable growth' which means it will be impossible to halt development. However, with a Neighbourhood Plan we expect to be able to affect how future growth will be implemented and supported, with a stronger local voice."

Mary Mountain, Chairman of Caterham-on-the-Hill Parish Council said: "We thought there would be quite a lot of challenges and opportunities with the Localism Bill so we decided to see if we could follow them through together with the other local parish councils and business groups. We realised that all the issues were the same for Whyteleaf, Caterham and Chaldon such as housing, loss of employment opportunities in the area and transport. Our first challenge is to put together our Front Runner Bid for government funding to help produce the Neighbourhood Plan."

A Special Interest Group consisting of 20 local community representatives has been formed to steer the development of the Neighbourhood Plan. Readers of The Caterham and District Independent will be kept informed of their progress.

For further information contact Chris Windridge on 07850 757037, e-mail: caterhamabc@mac.com

Chaldon residents concerned over future of 'Chaldon Mead'

Chaldon Village Council is holding a public meeting to discuss the formation of an Action Group to turn the four and a half acre Chaldon Mead site in the middle of the green belt into a community asset. Concern for the future of the site coupled with the growing need for a refurbished village hall, one of the community's few public buildings, has led many residents to consider the possibility of putting together a community bid.

Ted Howard, Chairman of Chaldon Village Council said: "Although this would certainly be in the spirit of 'localism' being championed by the present government, it would be a very large project for a small village the size of Chaldon. It will therefore be necessary to gauge the enthusiasm of residents and their willingness to contribute actively to such an undertaking".

All residents are invited to express their views and develop their ideas at the meeting which is to be held in Chaldon Village Hall, Rook Lane, on 1st September at 7.30pm.

Vandals destroy trees planted by Parish Council

Parish Councillors in Caterham-on-the-Hill were shocked to find that their programme of tree planting has been subject to vandalism and, as the photo below shows, the strong and well protected trees on Westway Common have been destroyed. The Council undertook the planting last year with advice from tree specialists, as part of the celebration of the ten year anniversary of the founding of the Council. Mary Mountain, this year's Chairman of the Council said: "We are particularly shocked at this wanton act of vandalism. We will now have to consider what extra steps we need to protect our other trees and the plaques which mark them. But we will not allow ourselves to be put off from this programme by louts.

It's such a sad thing that there are those who have so little respect for the amenities of others. It is likely that we will re-plant the trees, but we will need to take extra steps to protect them in future which will cost more money. "A kind lady resident from nearby flats had been coming to Westway Common to water the trees every day. We would like to thank her for looking after the trees before they were vandalised."

Councillors Sarah Burningham and Mary Mountain at the site of the vandalised trees on Westway Common.

'Gold Star Deals' - the new buzzwords for local businesses and shoppers

A free online service has been launched to give local businesses an exciting new way to promote their special deals. 'The Caterham and District Gold Star Deals' site forms part of the main Caterham and District Independent website and can be found at www.caterham-independent.co.uk/goldstardeals

Owner of The Caterham and District Independent, Julia Church, said: "I thought it would be a good idea to have a website that local people could visit to view some great local deals all in one place. There will be no fiddling about cutting out coupons. Shoppers simply have to quote a promotional code listed on the site to get the deal." Julia did some research first to see if others thought it was a good idea. After receiving lots of positive feedback, it was all systems go!

"Once I had decided to launch the site I was very busy, inviting local businesses to feature in the launch and getting promotional material designed, but we are ready to go now!" she said.

"One of the challenges has been getting the hang of using 'social media' to spread the word, using Facebook and Twitter. I hope that once people discover the Gold Star Deals site they will tell their friends using the internet."

Those who have signed up for the paper's free weekly online newsletter will be kept notified when the deals are updated each month.

Julia said: "Our weekly 'E-newsletter' enables us to send out extra news stories to our readers along with a calendar of local events. It will be a useful tool for keeping everyone updated with the Gold Star Deals as well."

If you do not already receive the weekly newsletter, you can sign up at www.caterham-independent.co.uk and click on the link near the top of the Home Page.

For anyone with an i-Phone, the deals will also be viewable via the Caterham and District Independent i-Phone App!

Some of the offers have Terms and Conditions and are for a limited number of customers because they are such generous deals so early viewing is recommended. Enjoy!

'South Meets' raises £456 for Orpheus Centre

Members of a car enthusiasts' club called 'South Meets' held a charity event at the Orpheus Centre in Godstone on Sunday 21st August raising £456 for the charity.

Over 100 people attended the event with 70 cars that were washed by the 'South Meets' bikini girls. Other attractions included a display of classic cars, a 'Havair' stand and music. Organiser, Kathryn Giles said: "The day was a great success and we hope to hold many more charity events. I would like to say a big 'thank you' to Three Arch Garage who supplied the marquees and ran the barbecue. I would also like to thank all the 'South Meets' volunteers who spent all day in the heat raising more and more money.

"Thank you too to the Havair team who turned up bright and early with their amazing cars, put on a fantastic show and gave some generous donations."

'South Meets' can be found on Facebook.

A Level success for 'Outstanding' Warlingham School Sixth Form

Warlingham School is delighted to announce some of its best ever A Level results this year and would like to congratulate its students on their outstandingly successful performance. The A-E pass rate achieved was an impressive 99% and the A - C grade performance has also continued to improve to 70%. These results endorse the most recent Ofsted judgement which again judged the Sixth Form as 'outstanding'. This is further reflected in the number of excellent individual successes :-

house, said: "I am absolutely delighted with the outstanding results, and particularly pleased with the 21 A* grades achieved by the students."

She paid tribute to all the students for the hard work and commitment shown by a very dedicated year group. Assistant Headteacher and Head of Sixth Form, Rob Scott, was also delighted: "I would like to congratulate the students. I am particularly impressed not only by their excellent grades, but also by their wider commitment both to the school and to the local community as part of their Surrey Graduation qualification. In addition to working incredibly hard to achieve these fantastic results many of our students still find the time to help and support many worthwhile causes within the local area. One student in particular, Muneeb Safdar, in addition to achieving his excellent results, has completed over 200 hours of voluntary service and been granted the much sought after Diana Award for his efforts."

Students will celebrate their success with their families and teachers at a graduation ceremony which will be held at the Hilton Hotel, Croydon on Tuesday 13th September.

Medieval Mayhem in Church Walk!

There was lots of lively fun to be enjoyed at the Medieval Day held in Church Walk, Caterham on Saturday, 20th August.

Shoppers were entertained by the Jolly Jester and Medieval Maid as well as the Centre Team dressed as Knights of the Realm and their Ladies. Lady Sonia, the herald for the day greeted shoppers and children had their faces painted by Bubblegum Face Painting. The ever-popular shop window competition was hosted by First Choice Travel, where children have to spot an item in a shop window that they do not sell.

The highlight of the afternoon was the fancy dress competition, won by eight year-old Matthew Hurcombe from Caterham who dressed as a knight. Princess Penny Hurcombe came second and Princess Isabelle Haynes came third.

The Tandridge Community Fund says 'Thank you'

by Chairman, Mike Moss.

I am delighted to report that the Tandridge Community Fund has benefitted recently from two sources.

Over 400 people attended the Classic Concert held at David Gold's house last month, raising £5,000 for the Fund. We were pleased that the weather stayed fine and dry, even if it did get a little cool late in the evening! We thank David for the use of his grounds and Richard Stilgoe for compering the concert. We also thank all the volunteers without whom we could not have managed.

The second source of funding was from the Waitrose store in Oxted. Their 'Community Matters' programme raised £125 for the Fund. We would like to thank Waitrose, who made the donation, and their customers who indicated who should receive the funding.

The Tandridge Community Fund has now reached a point where the interest it has earned has enabled us to make contributions to five local groups. In March we presented cheques to the Godstone at Play and Oxted-based Stepping Stones charities. We also made three cheque presentations at the Classic Concert to Age Concern, Oxted; the Baby Café, de Stafford School; and Ross Stevenson to assist him with a musical career.

Flautist, Julie Groves, performing at last month's Classic Concert.

However we are not sitting-back - we are still working to reach our initial target of £100,000. Help us to help the community!

For more information or to make a donation, call Mike on 01883 713322.

Diary of a Plantaholic

by Sue Baines

Search and rescue sums up this month in the garden. I love to plant closely; it saves on the watering and weeding. Plant combinations suddenly take on a life of their own, which I find really exciting. However, it is a dangerous game, because with a few days of rain some of the more precious plants can get completely swamped.

In between the showers I have started taking cuttings. Many of the cuttings are of shrubs and other plants that aren't very winter hardy, so they will be housed in a heated propagator over winter. Next spring as the weather warms I will pot them into larger containers, and with a bit of feed they will quickly catch up. I try to keep a trough handy, so that any broken pieces of wind blown plants will provide new plants. With all the wind we've had they are filling very quickly.

Sue Baines

Dead-heading at this time of the year can lengthen the season considerably, as can feeding, but be careful. Over-feeding with a general fertilizer will probably produce lax stems. I switch to tomato fertilizer which is great to encourage fruiting and flowers and also ripens the wood, hopefully making them more winter hardy. Some of the annuals are setting seed already, so as soon as the sun shines for a few days they will be collected. I put them into envelopes that I have saved from junk mail. Each year's harvest is very different, so having a good selection means that I can experiment without too much expense.

Focus on Whyteleafe

A new image for Whyteleafe's 'Village Council'

Whyteleafe Parish Council has spruced up its image and has been renamed 'Whyteleafe Village Council', with a new logo to go with the new name. The council has been working to develop a greater community spirit in Whyteleafe and improve communication between the council and residents. The Whyteleafe Fair in July, organised by the council members and other helpers, was enjoyed by many local people and the council was delighted at the sense of community spirit created by the occasion.

We should like to point out that Sam Gyimah is the MP for East Surrey, not Cllr Sally Marks as was mistakenly printed in last month's edition of the paper. We are very sorry for the error.

To celebrate its fresh identity and improve communication, the council has launched a new website designed by local website designer, Ashley Burridge. The website is being kept up to date with local news and events, as well as providing the facility for residents to leave their comments and vote on local issues. Visitors to the site can also see who their local parish councillors are and download council meeting notes. The site is easy to navigate and the text can be made larger for the visually impaired. Chairman of Whyteleafe Village Council, Celia Rudland said: "Many Whyteleafe residents do not have the time to attend the council meetings so the website provides an alternative way for local people to make their views known to the council. We really hope residents will use the website to support the work of their Parish Council." To view the new website go to www.whyteleafecouncil.org.uk

Celebrating ten years in Whyteleafe

Village Bakers Sandwich Bar in Godstone Road, Whyteleafe is celebrating its tenth anniversary this year. A great highlight to the year for the shop was the Whyteleafe Fair in July, where many visitors to the event enjoyed their delicious range of sandwiches and cakes at the mouthwatering stand manned by Amelia Owarzany and Poppy Rickard.

Owner, Ian Bristow, said: "The girls were very busy but had a lovely time meeting so many local people. It was a great day and we have received a lot of compliments about our stand." More than just a sandwich bar, Village Bakers also serves speciality tea and coffee as well as hot food, including the delicious Chicken Escalope, served in a French stick with salad and mild chilli sauce. Ian said: "The Chicken Escalope is a real favourite with my customers. Everyone who has tried one has come back!" Seven years ago Ian launched his sandwich delivery service that serves many local businesses and organisations, including Godstone Fire Station and Caterham PO Sorting Office. Thanks to the reliability of the delivery service, Ian has many regular business customers. Another popular feature of Village Bakers is the early opening at 5.30am - a real boon for commuters on their way to catch a train. Ian is happy to take telephone orders so a packed lunch can be ready to grab in the early morning rush. What a great way to save time!

C.H.E.C.K. volunteers help out in Kimilili

On Monday 15th August, 21 volunteers returned to Caterham following a three week trip to Kimilili in Western Kenya. The group was made up of members of C.H.E.C.K. (Community Health and Education for the Children of Kimilili), C.O.A.T. (The Caterham Overseas Aid Trust) and other volunteers. The trip was led by Geraint Jenkins MBE, who first went to Kimilili as a young teacher with the Voluntary Services Overseas (VSO) charity. He has made regular return trips over the years with other helpers to teach the children and carry out building projects at the town's four schools.

The charities C.O.A.T. and C.H.E.C.K. support the work back in the UK by organising events to fund the projects. Speaking about the work carried out on the latest trip, Geraint said: "We managed to get loads done while we were there - our group worked really hard to get as much done as possible in a short time. I spent a lot of time teaching, but also supervised the projects. My hands were really soft compared to everyone else's at the end of the trip!"

The group worked on five separate projects in Kimilili with the help of the town's residents. Amongst the projects was the construction of a new kitchen in Kimilili Girls' Primary School, a pig sty at St. Luke's Boys' Secondary School and a new toilet block at St. Theresa's Girls' Secondary School. The children's ward of the hospital was cleaned and the walls painted while the children were placed outside under the trees for the frantic seven hours it took to complete the task. The group also handed out clothes, blankets and toys that had been donated by friends and family back in the UK.

In Geraint's evaluation of the trip, one of the group stated: "It was a fantastic experience to be involved in and we fell in love with Kimilili!"

A full account of the projects and more photos can be viewed at www.caterham-independent.co.uk

Fun Day raises £700 for The Lily Foundation

A Fun Day held at Whyte-leave Recreation Ground on Sunday 31st July raised over £700 for the children's charity, The Lily Foundation. The event featured a variety of stalls and sideshows as well as a barbecue and raffle, with a host of prizes kindly donated by local businesses and individuals. The event was organised by Donna Coote and her family and friends, who have been supporting the charity since it was set up three years ago to fund research into Mitochondrial Disease. "I am really, really pleased with how the day went and to see so many people coming who had never heard of The Lily Foundation before," she said.

"I would like to thank everyone for coming and to all my friends who worked so hard to make the day a success."

Glam and Gorgeous!

Create your own style at 'The Knit Club'

Louise Dungate, owner of 'The Knit Club'.

On Saturday 30th July local knitting enthusiasts went along to the opening of 'The Knit Club' on the High Street in Caterham-on-the-Hill. 24 year-old Louise Dungate opened the shop following the closure of 'The Yarn House' so the community still had somewhere to buy yarn. Visitors to the launch party enjoyed tea and cakes whilst sharing knitting and crochet tips. Louise said: "I was very surprised by the response on Saturday. Lots of people came, drank tea, ate cake and shared knitting knowledge. It still hasn't sunk in yet that I've opened my own shop."

Louise took up knitting whilst working at an advertising company that had a 'knit club', which inspired the name of the shop. After designing her own knitwear for two years Louise decided to start selling some of her collection. Preferring to knit accessories such as hats and scarves, Louise has developed her own signature style of 'Big Chunky Knitting'. She is currently working on a commission to create 38 garments for 'Dagny & Barstow', a new boutique opening in New York this month. Starting in September, Louise will be holding her own knit club on Thursday evenings for anyone who wants to learn, or simply wants to enjoy knitting with others. A crochet club is also going to be held; the day is still to be confirmed.

"Anyone who's interested in knitting should just do it," said Louise. "Knitting with a group of people is great, you get inspired by others, get to share knowledge and show off your work. Knitting is

Meet the team at The Caterham Cut-in and Tan-in

Gentlemen visiting the Caterham Cut-in men's hairstylists in Croydon Road, Caterham have seen a few changes to the shop in recent weeks. The owner, Jeremy King, has teamed up with Carmen Tutt and James Ang to provide a sunbed, sun shower and spray tan service to men and women - a dream come true for Carmen!

"I had a couple of dreams about running my own sunbed shop which is what gave me the idea to start with," explained Carmen. "James and I discussed the idea with Jeremy who thought it would be a great way to expand the existing business, especially as he had plenty of space available at the back of the shop."

Some of Jeremy's clients have already used the new service. He said: "I think the guys find it a bit more comfortable having a tan here rather than going into other sunbed shops that are mainly used by women." Carmen has found that some of her clients especially like the Sunday opening hours. She said: "I think the Sunday opening is something that will be extra popular with the ladies whose men go off to play Sunday football. They can treat themselves to a session on a sunbed while the men are off enjoying themselves!" To book an appointment at the Caterham Cut-in and Tan-in call 01883 330020.

Core Strength and Balance

by Steve Robertson

X-T.R.E.M.E. Training

Steve Robertson

Good balance requires 'core strength' - a term that refers to the strength and stability around your abdominal, lower back and hip muscles. A lot of exercise incorporates twisting and rotating and core strength plays a critical part in controlling your everyday movements. The stronger your core, the easier it will be to perform better posture and for some more challenging manoeuvres it will also help reduce the risk of injury.

Next time you are training try these exercises with a stability ball or Swiss ball.

Russian Twist

Lie on a stability ball with your feet on the floor, knees at right angles. The ball should be nestled around your shoulder blade area. Keep your abdominals pulled in to support your back which helps to engage your core.

Hold a weight plate/medicine ball above your head and roll to the side until the tip of your shoulder is on the ball, and then repeat with the other side.

Stability Ball Bridge

Support your weight with your toes on the ground and placing your forearms on the ball, creating a bridge with your body. To increase the intensity, instead of using your forearms place your hands on the ball as though you were doing a push up.

Draw in your abdominals towards your spine and hold this throughout the exercise for a specific time.

Add these to your training programme, and you will improve your core and your balance. If you have any questions concerning health and fitness get in touch with me on 07745 946748.

A taste of India at 'Bollywood'

Review by Emma Berry

Bollywood restaurant in Godstone Road, Caterham offers a wide variety of traditional Indian food in a comfortable and spacious setting. When I visited Bollywood with Julia from The Caterham and District Independent we immediately felt welcomed by the soft Indian music and restaurant's relaxed atmosphere.

For my starter I ordered the Tandoori Chicken Skewer and Julia ordered the Crab Piri Piri. Julia described her starter as: "Delicately spiced, pleasantly light and perfect for a starter."

The Tandoori Chicken was beautifully presented with plenty of salad and sauces. The chicken was tender and tasted lovely.

We shared a variety of curries and side orders for our main course, all of which looked colourful and appetising. The Chicken Nag-puri was the hottest curry we tried and had a spicy kick which gave it a distinctive flavour. The Xacuti Chicken was described as hot but Julia and I felt it was not too hot and the spiciness was just right. My favourite curry was the Dum Pukht Gosh (lamb curry). It was tender and, although it was one of the milder curries, it was full of flavour.

I hadn't tried Coconut Rice before but was glad I ordered it; Julia described the rice as "perfectly cooked" and I thought it contrasted beautifully with the hot curries. We shared Dall Samber and Mombay Aloo as side orders. The Dall Samber (mixed vegetables and lentils) had a hint of lemon, which made it very refreshing, especially after the hot curries. I ordered Mombay Aloo, my favourite Indian dish, and I was not disappointed! The potatoes were soft, light and full of flavour, without being too spicy. Bollywood offers great service, is child friendly and suitable for people of all tastes with a choice of mild, medium and hot dishes and vegetarian meals. To experience the tastes of India and a great night out I recommend you visit Bollywood.

The 'Il Carretto' Italian experience is coming to Coulsdon

Review by Julia Church

'Il Carretto', the well-known South London Italian restaurant, is having a reincarnation in Coulsdon and my daughter Jenny and I were invited to a sneak preview of the menu recently. 'Il Carretto' is taking over the premises occupied by 'Las Delicias' Mexican Restaurant at 121 Brighton Road and our visit took place a few days before the official changeover at the end of August. When 'Il Carretto' was in Streatham it was one of the most popular restaurants in London and many remember its lively atmosphere and popular 'Elvis' nights. It is yet to be decided if the Elvis nights will be resurrected too but the new owner, Andrea, has lots of exciting plans for the new restaurant. He said: "It is going to be just like 'Il Carretto' in Streatham - the same food, ambience, everything. Lots of people will remember what a fantastic place it was and were sorry to see it go. I am excited that we are re-opening it in Coulsdon."

The menu is varied and reasonably priced, with a good selection of pizza and pasta dishes as well as meat, fish and salads. Jenny and I had homemade Minestrone Soup for starters and the menu will feature many other favourites including deep fried squid, avocado pear and prawns and garlic mushrooms. Our main course was the very traditional 'Pollo Funghi', a large breast of chicken served in a mushroom and cream sauce. The chicken was beautiful, really tender in a wonderful creamy sauce with lots of mushrooms. It came served with crispy potato wedges and fresh vegetables. The meal was a tantalising glimpse of the high quality of the food to be served at 'Il Carretto'. Why not be one of their first new customers? See their advert below for more details.

Who wants to be a Volunteer?

by Marion Piggott

There's a growing trend for people to begin volunteering before they retire fully - a sort of gentle slide from one period of their life to another. Although approximately 10% of volunteers are retired at the time they register with us, twice as many are over 55 and, like Peter, planning ahead.

"I believe the best time to plan my retirement," Peter told me last year, "is before my boss does!"

The humour masked his awkwardness - he later confessed to feelings of unease. New to volunteering Peter was unsure about what he wanted to do, or even if he really wanted to commit to anything.

"There's no pressure," I reassured him. "I'll simply tell you what is available and you can think about it. Take as long as you need."

A complete change appeals to some, like the teacher who very definitely did not want to volunteer with children. Alternatively, craftsmen and specialists of all flavours want a role that uses their valuable skills.

For information about volunteering opportunities please ring me, Marion Piggott, at the Volunteer Centre Caterham, 01883 344444, email: caterhamvc@owen29.wanadoo.co.uk, or visit our website: www.surrey-community.info/tvsc/.

Finally, taking a leaf out of Peter's book I have been planning my own retirement since early summer. Within days of handing over to my successor in October I am resuming my studies, finishing the Honours degree I started years ago. Yes, I will also be volunteering, how could I not? So cheerio from me. It has been a privilege to be part of Caterham's volunteering community this past five years.
